

Holbrook Bird List

Diurnal birds

Australian Hobby	Grey Currawong	Shining Bronze-Cuckoo
Australian King Parrot	Grey Fantail	Silvereye
Australian Magpie	Grey Shrike-thrush	Southern Whiteface
Australian Raven	Grey-crowned Babbler	Speckled Warbler
Australian Reed-Warbler	Hooded Robin	Spotted Harrier
Black-chinned Honeyeater	Horsfield's Bronze-cuckoo	Spotted Pardalote
Black-faced Cuckoo-shrike	Jacky Winter	Spotted Quail-thrush
Black-shouldered Kite	Laughing Kookaburra	Striated Pardalote
Blue-faced Honeyeater	Leaden Flycatcher	Striated Thornbill
Brown Falcon	Little Corella	Stubble Quail
Brown Goshawk	Little Eagle	Sulphur-crested Cockatoo
Brown Quail	Little Friarbird	Superb Fairy-wren
Brown Songlark	Little Lorikeet	Swamp Harrier
Brown Thornbill	Magpie-lark	Swift Parrot (e)
Brown Treecreeper	Mistletoebird	Tree Martin
Brown-headed Honeyeater	Nankeen Kestrel	Turquoise Parrot (t)
Buff-rumped Thornbill	Noisy Friarbird	Varied Sitella
Cockatiel	Noisy Miner	Wedge-tailed Eagle
Common Bronzewing	Olive-backed Oriole	Weebill
Common Starling *	Painted Button Quail	Welcome Swallow
Crested Pigeon	Painted Honeyeater (t)	Western Warbler
Crested Shrike-tit	Pallid Cuckoo	White-bellied Cuckoo-shrike
Crimson Rosella	Peaceful Dove	White-browed Babbler
Diamond Firetail	Peregrine Falcon	White-browed Scrubwren
Dollarbird	Pied Butcherbird	White-eared Honeyeater
Dusky Woodswallow	Pied Currawong	White-fronted Chat
Eastern Rosella	Rainbow Bee-eater	White-naped Honeyeater
Eastern Spinebill	Red Wattlebird	White-plumed Honeyeater
Eastern Yellow Robin	Red-browed Finch	White-throated Needle-tail
Fairy Martin	Red-browed Treecreeper	White-throated Treecreeper
Fan-tailed Cuckoo	Red-capped Robin	White-throated Warbler
Flame Robin	Red-rumped Parrot	White-winged Chough
Fuscous Honeyeater	Restless Flycatcher	White-winged Triller
Galah	Richard's Pipit	Willy Wagtail
Gang-gang Cockatoo	Rufous Songlark	Yellow Thornbill
Golden Whistler	Rufous Whistler	Yellow-faced Honeyeater
Golden-headed Cisticola	Sacred Kingfisher	Yellow-rumped Thornbill
Grey Butcherbird	Scarlet Robin	Yellow-tufted Honeyeater

The most common bird species seen in the Holbrook area include the Eastern Rosella (left) and the Striated Pardalote (right).
Photos: Wikipedia

Holbrook Area Bird List Key

(t) = threatened species

(e) = endangered species

* = introduced species

Nocturnal birds

Australian Owlet-nightjar
Barn Owl
Southern Boobook
Tawny Frogmouth

Water birds

Australasian Grebe
Australasian Shoveller
Australian Pelican
Australian Shelduck
Australian Wood Duck
Black Swan
Black-fronted Dotterel
Black-winged Stilt
Chestnut Teal
Great Cormorant
Grey Teal
Hardhead
Hoary-headed Grebe
Little Pied Cormorant
Masked Lapwing
Nankeen Night Heron
Pacific Black Duck
Pacific Heron
Pied Cormorant
Pink-eared Duck
Royal Spoonbill
Sacred Ibis
Straw-necked Ibis
White-faced Heron

Predicted to occur - no recent records

Australian Darter
Banded Lapwing
Barking Owl (t)
Black-faced Woodswallow
Blue-billed Duck (t)
Brush Bronzewing
Bush Stone-curlew (e)
Cattle Egret
Collared Sparrowhawk
Dusky Moorhen
Eastern Whipbird
Eurasian Coot
European Goldfinch *
House Sparrow
Letter-winged Kite
Lewin's Rail
Musk Duck
Powerful Owl (t)
Purple Swamphen
Regent Honeyeater (e)
Satin Bowerbird
Singing Honeyeater
Skylark
Spotted Nightjar
Square-tailed Kite (t)
Striated Fieldwren
Whistling Kite
White-browed Woodswallow
White-throated Nightjar
Yellow-plumed Honeyeater
Yellow-tailed Black-cockatoo
Zebra Finch

Holbrook Area Bird List Key

(t) = threatened species
(e) = endangered species
* = introduced species

Threatened bird Turquoise Parrot (top) and the endangered Swift Parrot (bottom).
Photos: Eastern Billabong Wildlife Brochure

The nocturnal Australian Owlet-nightjar.
Photo: CC Image courtesy of Flickr EOL

The Royal Spoonbill is a common waterbird.
Photo: Holbrook Landcare Network

The bird list was compiled by Stuart Collard for the 'Re-birding' the Holbrook Landscape project, Holbrook Landcare Network.